

Elizabeth Suárez

Board Experience | Corporate Executive |
Entrepreneur | Leadership Strategist |

Elizabeth is a seasoned business operations executive and human capital expert turned entrepreneur with a track record of partnering with companies to scale profits while empowering their workforce.

As a highly regarded consultant and entrepreneur, Elizabeth is an expert at transforming organizations from reactive to proactive operating, resulting in a stronger bottom line and leadership retention. Tapped by Fortune 100, government agencies, non-profits and medium sized organizations, Elizabeth has provided C-Suite teams leadership savviness to effectively navigate difficulties and challenges into sustainable collaborative outcomes. Elizabeth is a highly sought-after Board of Directors facilitator, where she works with the Directors on critical thinking skills necessary to lead and reach collaboration throughout a variety of crisis situations.

Elizabeth's alternative dispute resolution skills are highly valued by her clients. She can reach a win-win solution by not shying away from conflict and instead leaning into a highly collaborative negotiation. She is known for her ability to guide leaders in retaining key employees throughout adverse circumstances.

Elizabeth has facilitated multiple Board and C-Suite teams while developing a keen ability to evaluate strategic direction, and workforce leadership development to foresee the organization's future performance. Elizabeth's transformative impact is grounded in her unique ability to inspire leadership, authentically connect with others, and go beyond conventional approaches to truly meet the moment that any organization may face.

Elizabeth currently serves as a Director of the Latino Entrepreneur Access Program (LEAP) Advisory Board, a growth-stage entrepreneur accelerator for Latino & BIPOC business leaders. In her first year, Elizabeth advised a flood mitigating company with their national launch. Elizabeth has been asked to expand her commitment by joining another start-up's advisory board by mid-2023.

As a board member of Girls Inc of Metro Denver, Elizabeth served as the Chair of the CEO Recruitment Committee. With her leadership, the organization hired their first Latina CEO, resulting in transforming the organization's leadership into a reflection of the community they serve.

Elizabeth's consultancy clients have included: Capital One, L'Oreal, the Colorado Department of Transportation, City & County of Denver City Council, Colorado Trust, the Hispanic Association on Corporate Responsibility (HACR), Moody's, Pfizer, Viasat, and others.

A lover of the outdoors, Elizabeth spends most of her weekends hiking and/or snowshoeing the beautiful Colorado Rocky Mountains, while searching for a lake to launch her paddleboard. This love has inspired her to hike every trail of El Camino de Santiago in Spain by the end of the decade. Elizabeth is active in her local community by mentoring the next generation of Latina leaders in Colorado. She is also the proud mother of her "Tesoro", Bianca, who will enter the financial markets upon graduating from Elizabeth's alma mater, Cornell University, in May 2023.
